AXA MALAYSIA COMMITS TO CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY FOR 8 CONSECUTIVE YEARS

- For 8 consecutive years, AXA Malaysia dedicated a week of corporate responsibility activities to give back to society.
- AXA Malaysia took the lead in launching Employee Social Responsibility Leave as part of its ongoing effort to drive corporate responsibility among employees.

For the 8th consecutive year, AXA Malaysia organised a dedicated Corporate Responsibility Week (CR Week) to give back to communities, as part of its ongoing effort to put corporate responsibility in action.

The annual initiative reinforces the company's commitment to empower lives, and helps build a more sustainable society.

The theme this year is "Corporate Responsibility in Action" for AXA Malaysia to raise awareness and advocate the importance of health, wellness, education and social welfare among its staff and community.

Various activities advocating different causes were held from 25 till 29 June 2018 such as healthy sushi making class, cancer awareness campaign in partnership with National Cancer Society Malaysia, blood donation, pre-loved sale where funds raised were utilised to improve students' classroom in Sekolah Kebangsaan Seri Delima, and finally a Raya celebration event with children from Pusat Aktiviti Kanak-Kanak (PAKK).

AXA Malaysia had also allocated a total of RM 50,000 donation to 5 NGO partners—The National Kidney Foundation, National Cancer Society Malaysia, Yayasan Jantung Malaysia, World Vision and WWF Malaysia.

To share the true spirit of Raya, AXA Malaysia invited children from PAKK to its head office in Kuala Lumpur for a delightful celebration filled with fun, festivity and activities. Besides having fun with the children, the employees collected a generous donation of groceries and household essentials worth RM 12,820 for PAKK.

For 8 consecutive years, AXA Malaysia dedicated a week of corporate responsibility activities to give back to society.

"We at AXA Malaysia, recognise that a healthy and sustainable society is critically important to our community, economy, business and people. This CR week is a great avenue for us, as a corporate to engage our staff to contribute to a good cause and help the underserved community. We believe the long-term success of AXA Malaysia contributes to the health and well-being of society in general," said Rohit Nambiar, Chief Executive Officer of AXA Affin Life Insurance Berhad.

AXA Malaysia promotes Corporate Responsibility as a continuous, year-long agenda. In conjunction with CR Week 2018, AXA Affin General Insurance Berhad (AAGI) introduced Employee Social Responsibility Leave to encourage employees to participate in local charities and good causes beyond the CR Week.

AAGI employees are allocated 2 days in a year to join volunteering activities of their preferences, without utilising their annual leave.

"The launch of Employee Social Responsibility Leave is yet another feature of our commitment to champion innovative initiatives that serve to empower people's lives, starting internally with our employees," said Mohd Syukri bin Ahmad Sudari, Chief Human Resources of AAGI.

CR Week is a global initiative involving all AXA's employees worldwide. Held in association with AXA Hearts In Action, it strives to empower employees around the world to act upon corporate responsibility as part of their day-to-day life. Last year, more than 60,000 employees participated during the week in volunteering and fund-raising activities.
